The proposal is expected to include the following three main sections:

1. Introduction

- Provide relevant background to contextualize the issue and clearly define the problem to be addressed;
- State the research objectives in alignment with sustainable development goals;
- Highlight the significance and potential impact of your proposal.

2. Proposal

- Clarify your role and responsibilities, and identify key stakeholders;
- Present feasible and specific solutions to the identified problem;
- Describe your research methods, justify your proposal with robust evidence (e.g., examples, statistics, case studies, testimonies, tables or figures);
- Anticipate possible obstacles and provide practical solutions to address them.

3. Conclusion

- Summarize the proposed strategies and their desired outcomes;
- Emphasize the significance and originality of the proposal.
